Disaster Preparedness for the Pacific Northwest

Learn what environmental, meteorological and man-made events have struck our region and how to prepare for them in the future. Recognize the need for disaster preparedness, learn about the necessary supplies your family will need to ride out a disaster, and what you'll need to stay comfortable during a long-term catastrophic event.

Newport Campus:
Thursday—June 6, 2019
Thursday—June 13, 2019

This is a 2-session course.
Each class is from
5:30pm to 8:30pm

To register:

*The program is offered free of charge, thanks to Oregon Coast Community College and
North Lincoln Fire & Rescue District.*

Taught by North Lincoln Fire and Rescue District Captain Jim Kusz, the course is designed to take the panic and paranoia out of planning. While it discusses in frank detail the threats facing the Oregon Coast, from damaging storms and power outages to the looming threat of the Cascadia Subduction Zone, Capt. Kusz uses humor and a superb level of preparedness skill and background to walk participants through the simple steps they can take to be prepared for everything from an Asteroid Strike to a Zombie Pandemic, if ever one should occur.
